Whip-lash (n.): a malady common to Montgomery County voters who attempt to follow the many position changes of county council candidate
Pat Baptiste

"PAT BAPTISTE'S chameleon like positions"

Pat Baptiste's OLD POSITION

As a member of the County Planning Board, Pat Baptiste sponsored the motion to adopt the North Bethesda/Garrett Park Master Plan that calls for building the Montrose Parkway.

As a member of the County Planning Board, Pat Baptiste voted for the change to the Master Plan that allows for the construction of the conference center.

Pat Baptiste supported the smoking ban in restaurants when it was proposed.

Pat Baptiste has a history of attacking her opponents for allegedly being in the pockets of Montgomery County developers.

Pat Baptiste's NEW POSITION

Pat Baptiste now says she is against the Montrose Parkway.

Pat Baptiste now says she opposes the conference center.

Pat Baptiste then said she opposes the smoking ban.

Pat Baptiste herself has taken campaign contributions from Montgomery County real estate interests.
